TOM, DICK & HARRY

by Michael and Ray Cooney

Our final show for 2014 is the hilarious story of three brothers, two Kosovan refugees, one bag of body parts and an assorted bunch of decidedly oddball characters.

■ Ushmo making body parts

Author Ray Cooney has had 17 successful plays run in London's West End. His biggest success, Run For Your Wife, ran for nine years - the longest running comedy on the West End. Tom, Dick and Harry is another hilarious English farce.

Tom and his wife Linda are trying to adopt a baby. The woman from the Agency is due to arrive at any moment. They are so certain their interview will go well. What could possibly go wrong?

Enter Tom's loveable rogue brother Dick and his genius, but "thick", brother Harry.

Director Ian Rigney

Ian has been involved in the Adelaide theatre scene for over fifty years, in productions ranging from comedy to drama, music theatre to Music Hall.

Ian's most recent productions were the Ira Levin comedy thriller DEATHTRAP for the Therry Dramatic Society and the sell-out season of THE FOX ON THE FAIRWAY for St Jude's Players.

Amongst his several awards, Ian recently received the prestigious ATG award for "Sustained Excellence and Contribution to Theatre in South Australia".

British comedy at its best!

■ James Edwards, David Salter and Matt Houston

Add a truck load of smuggled cigarettes and brandy and a garbage bag stuffed with body parts; throw in a couple of illegal aliens who can't speak a word of English and, just to add to the chaos, the obligatory British Bobby.

What better way to finish the year off than with this zany comedy?

The fabulous cast includes James Edwards as Tom, David Salter as Dick and Matt Houston as Harry with Lana Adamuszek, Tamara Bennetts, Glenn Vallen, Stanley Tuck, Gareth Albanese and Penni Hamilton Smith.

Quartet

by Ronald Harwood

Season dates: 9th - 18th April 2015

Director: Glenn Vallen

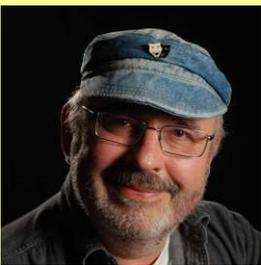

Cecily, Reggie and Wilfred are former opera singers in a home for retired musicians. The group is in for a shock when they discover that a new arrival is none other than their former singing partner, Jean. Her subsequent career as a star soloist, and the ego that accompanied it, split up their long friendship and ended her marriage to Reggie. Can the passage of time heal old wounds? Will the famous quartet be able to patch up their differences to present one last hurrah? A pitch-perfect comedy both moving and charming.

Glenn's first production as Director was Joe Orton's 'What The Butler Saw' for Salisbury Theatre Company in 1987. His most recent show was his award-winning production of Mel Brooks' 'The Producers' for Matt Byrne Media in 2007. In between he's tackled most theatrical forms from thrillers to musical comedy. After taking a short break from the Director's chair, Glenn is pleased to be back and directing his first show for The Adelaide Rep. Watch out for Glenn and his trumpet in the Rep's final production for 2014, 'Tom, Dick and Harry'.

It's Just Sex

by Jeff Gould

Season dates: 18th - 27th June 2015

Director: Erik Strauts

A thought provoking and clever look at sex and marriage. With the kids away, three married couples get together for an evening of relaxation and laughs. But as the liquor flows and secrets are revealed, trust is tested and boundaries are broken.

A comedic and thought-provoking look at fidelity, lust, communication and what it really takes for a marriage to survive and thrive. By the end of the evening, an innocent party changes all three relationships forever.

This will be an Australian premiere (first produced in USA 2009)

Erik has been involved with community theatre, one way or another, for over forty years; not only as actor and director, but also as stage manager, set designer and builder, sound and lighting technician, and producer and administrator.

The Rep is pleased to welcome this talented director.

Auditions for The Cripple of Innishmaan and Only an Orphan Girl will be confirmed early in 2015

The Cripple of Inishmaan

by Martin McDonough

Season dates: 3rd - 12th September 2015

Director: Kerrin White

Inishmaan, a remote island off the west coast of Ireland, 1934.

Cripple Billy stares at cows. A lot. It's not that Cripple Billy is particularly fascinated by cows - it's simply where he does his best thinking.

And Billy's best thought is always the same: How the hell can I get away from Inishmaan?

When Hollywood director Robert Flaherty and his film crew arrive on the neighbouring island of Inishmore, it appears Billy's wish may be granted. If only Billy can find a way across to Inishmore.....

A bittersweet comic masterpiece. Must-see theatre for 2015.

Kerrin White has been involved in Adelaide theatre for over 20 years. Originally an actor, Kerrin discovered directing in the mid-1990s and hasn't trodden the boards since.

He has worked for the Theatre Guild, Axis Theatre Company, Therry and of course the Rep. Some of his favourite productions include 'Plaza Suite' (2002), 'Cosi' (2007) and the Rep's acclaimed production of 'The Beauty Queen of Leenane'.

Only an Orphan Girl

Chairman's Message

Dear members, subscribers, volunteers and patrons,

Ready or not, here we are in the final quarter of the year and what a year we've had. Our purpose is to produce four, consistently good quality plays that people want to see each year. Audience response clearly shows that we have achieved that, so thank you to all the volunteers who made this possible.

Our final offering for 2014 is the fast paced, frolicking farce 'Tom, Dick and Harry'. Take some time out for a good laugh before the silly season hits us.

You will soon have an opportunity to tell us what you thought of this season's productions and what you would like to see in the future, when you receive a short survey from us asking for your opinions. We look forward to your constructive feedback to help us keep improving The Rep.

Our 2015 season launch will be held in the Thomas Nave room upstairs at the Arts theatre on Sunday November 30th from 2-4pm. Meet the directors, enjoy some afternoon tea and hear firsthand what we have on offer to stimulate your senses in 2015.

We are proud of the work we do at The Rep, both on-stage and off and I encourage you to recruit subscribers. A subscription makes a terrific gift. Why not encourage a friend or family member to benefit from our subscription offer.

I look forward to seeing you at 'Tom, Dick and Harry' in November 2014 or at a Rep show in 2015.
